(b) The Central Government allocates Kerosene oil to the States/Union Territories for distribution under the Public Distribution System (PDS). It is the responsibility of the State Government/Union Territory Administration concerned to distribute the same to the needy people in a judicious manner. Therefore, district/block-wise distribution of Kerosene oil is the responsibility of the concerned State Government/Union Territory Administration.

(c) Oil Companies make available Kerosene at their supply locations as per the allocation made to various States/Union Territories by Central Government and release the product to wholesalers who in turn supply to the retailers attached to them by the concerned State Government/Union Territory Administration for distribution under Public Distribution System (PDS). The retail selling price of kerosene oil under the Public Distribution System is fixed by the State Government/Union Territory Administration. It is the responsibility of the State Government/Union Territory Administration concerned to ensure regular supply of Kerosene oil at the rate fixed by them through the retailers appointed by them.
